Private Temple Tours

Angkor Temples Adventures

Fully Guided or DIY

For those wanting to gain a better insight into the life and history of the Angkor Temples this tour is for you.

Your guide takes you through Angkor Wat bringing it to life and sharing some of Cambodia’s special stories. From Angkor Wat to the Ancient city of Angkor Thom and the many temples within its walls, we take in all the known temples and show you some of the lesser visited temples and share their secrets.

Angkor Wat is a place that captures everyone’s imagination. Just how was it built, who lived here, and how?

Your guide will share the stories behind the bas relief galleries, and outline just how an ancient people called Angkor home.

Angkor Wat in all its incredible grandeur is often hard to take in. Stop along the way to feed the little hairy black elephants with banana, and pumpkin. See Angkor Wat in all its glory.

Then head into the Ancient City of Angkor Thom.

The grand gates are breath-taking and we will show you the popular South Gate, The Terrace of the Leper King and Elephant Terrace are brought to life by your guide.

Other sights including the Kleang group, Phimeanakas, Baphuon and more. Of course no visit to Angkor Thom is complete without a visit to the mystical Bayon temple. The temple adorned with those famous faces. The carvings here depict both mythical and historical scenes making Bayon an excellent spot to delve a little into the history and lives of the people of this era.

It is one of the few temples that shows historical scenes of daily life, flora and fauna.

Beyond Angkor & Beng Melea

Full Day Guided Tours

This is all about exploring some of Angkor's outlying treasures. Banteay Srei is the most intricately carved temple in Angkor, the River of 1000 Lingas and some of the earliest Angkorian carvings await.

The mysterious jungle temple of Beng Melea still intrigues visitors and locals alike with its little know past.

With your private temple guide you journey through local villages to Banteay Srei. Along the way you will see Cambodian village life. The beliefs, stories and goings on of rural life in Cambodia is a great chance to capture some amazing photos.

Banteay Srei, the most intricately carved temple in Angkor with its pinkish sandstone hues it is adorned with beautiful, deep carvings with amazing detail. Not far away is Kbal Spean also known as the "River of 1000 Lingas" is a 45 minute walk uphill through beautiful jungle to the spectacularly carved riverbeds.

Stop at the Landmine Museum or the Butterfly Farm on your way back the the pool at The RiverGarden.

Beng Melea is one of the older temples of the Angkorian period about 60 kms to the south of Siem Reap. Left purposely unrestored from its sojourn with the jungle, Beng Melea is a fascinating place to walk around as you see it very much in the condition it was discovered in centuries ago. Several movies have been made in and around this amazing temple ruins. Ask us about tours.

Volunteering & Cultural Experience

Teach English or Activities

Getting involved with our local community Take a look at our FaceBook page to get see what we are doing when we teach english to the local children. In co-operation with the monks at the village pagoda, The RiverGarden staff and volunteers teach english and do other activities a few times a week.

We offer you this wonderful experience - a chance to share and have a lot of fun in one of the english classes while you are here. Classes are typically an hour and there are 10 - 20 kids in differing age groups who come to learn english. To attend classes free the kids bring along a bag of rubbish. This initiative by The RiverGarden helps keep the streets and surrounding area cleaner. You will love the experience.
